

FIRKIN GIN – ISLAY CASK RESTED

This oak cask aged gin uses Firkin signature London dry gin recipe as a base before being rested in special Islay whisky barrels to impart the unique flavour and colour.

TASTING NOTES:

On the nose you're immediately hit with spicy, warming smell of juniper. Some honey and resin follows, before a nice note of something slightly reminiscent of Islay.

On the palate, this limited edition Firkin Gin exudes a wonderful, spicy and fruity kick from those gin botanicals, combined with a silky smooth, smoky exterior from the Islay barrel. There's black pepper and lime peel, ash and vanilla, sea salt and coriander seed.

Imagine eating a warming curry by a fire in a pine forest near the sea on Islay and you'll be somewhere close to the comfort of this spirit.
